A SENSATION.

Pennsylvania "Lottery King"
Under Arrest.

A "Commission Brokerage" Office
Proves to Be Merely a Blind

To Carry On An Extensive Deal in Lottery Tickets—It Is Alleged the United States Mails Were Used Extensively in Conducting the Business.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 15.—A sensation was created in this city Thursday when Chief of Police Briggs and a squad of officers raided the "commission brokerage" office of John Wurzbarger and the inmates. Wurzbarger is known all over northeastern Pennsylvania as the "Lottery King of Luzerne County," his brokerage business being merely a blind. For the past ten years he has been selling tickets openly, and it is estimated he did a business of over $120,000 a year. Wurzbarger was taken before Mayor Nickols, and, after a hearing, was fined $50 and held under $500 bail for court.

The police, when the raid was made, found several thousand dollars' worth of tickets of all the lotteries doing business, and also lists of his regular customers, showing that bankers, doctors, lawyers and prominent business men were spending large sums monthly through Wurzbarger's agency.

The raid was made at the instance of the Wilkesbarre Times, the editor of the paper appearing as the prosecutor. The Times Thursday night stated that it has proof that the late George A. Lohman put $1,100 in the lottery shortly before he committed suicide, and that ex-Banker Rockefeller, now in the eastern penitentiary, sunk thousands of dollars in his tickets. Wurzbarger had agents all surrounding Luzerne county, and it is alleged, also used the United States mails extensively in conducting his business.

The arrest and confiscation of the list of customers created much consternation, and the mayor was besieged by prominent people, who pleaded with him to have their names suppressed.

BRECKINRIDGE'S REVENGE.
He Will Run for the Legislature in Order to Assist in Defeating Senator Blackburn.

DANVILLE, Ky., March 15.—Col. Breckinridge, when in Danville on last Saturday and Sunday, said to a friend in this city that he would abandon the lecture platform within a couple of weeks, and would not resume the field until some time in the fall. A gentleman, whose home is in Lexington and who is a warm and devoted friend of the ex-congressman, said Thursday that he knew whereof he spoke when he stated that Col. Breckinridge would be a candidate from Fayette county for the state senate and that his election was a foregone conclusion.

This gentleman asserts, moreover, that Breckinridge's aim and single purpose in seeking a seat in the upper branch of the state legislature is to defeat Joe Blackburn in his candidacy for re-election to the United States senate.

Col. Breckinridge, so the Lexington man states, has a deeper seated hatred of Blackburn than any other man in Kentucky, and if he can contribute anything toward his defeat he will do it with all his power and enthusiasm.

It is related here that Col. Breckinridge asserted positively to a friend, who is a prominent Danville lawyer, that Blackburn is serving his last term in congress.

A FIERCE BATTLE.

The Cuban Insurgents Defeated Near Guantanamo.

By Telegraph to THE TIMES.
ST. LOUIS, March 15.—The latest news from Cuba says that General Gomez, of the insurgent army, has a force of 50,000 infantry and 3,000 cavalry.

New York, March 15.—A special cable to the Herald from Havana says official information by the government of the situation in Santiago de Cuba was given out Thursday.

A dispatch received by the military governor of Santiago from Gen. Garrich was forwarded to Havana.

In this message Gen. Garrich says that Col. Santocildes with one hundred armed men met a band of four hundred insurgents near Guantanamo.

There was a desperate battle, lasting for an hour and a half. This battle was plainly seen from the roofs of houses.

The insurgents were defeated with a loss of fifty killed and wounded, while the government troops had but six men killed. Many horses and mules were killed.

In his message Gen. Garrich commends the officers and men of the Spanish troops for their bravery.

It is also reported by the government that Maso, one of the insurgent leaders in Santiago, says he was misled, but is ashamed to surrender.

He says there are only 700 men in the movement in Santiago, two-thirds of whom are Negroes. Seven insurgents surrendered to the military governor of Santa Clara Wednesday.

The troops which have been pursuing the insurgents in the Cartiagenga district have returned, as the province is now tranquil. All is quiet in the provinces of Havana, Puerto Principe, Pinar del Rio and Matanzas.

Spanish forces which have been pursuing the bands formerly under the leadership of Matagas, overtook one of them between Matagas and Mono Prieto. Cristobal Rodriguez, a bandit, was killed. Many stands of arms and four horses were captured.

The police of this city found arms and ammunition hidden in a lodging house Thursday.

They were seized and three men, supposed to have knowledge of them, were arrested.

The party of insurgents operating near Baire is reduced to 40 men and one chief.

They are negotiating for surrender. Among those seeking amnesty are many men who have been wounded and who have returned to their homes.

The operations of the troops have broken up the revolutionary party there.

Gen. Lachambre telegraphs that the situation is much improved.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., March 15.—Fourteen prisoners were received at the State prison south Thursday morning. This makes the number of convicts confined in the penitentiary 850, an unusual number. The prison affords proper accommodations for but 650 men. Never before was there so large a number confined there.

James Evans, the only man in the state who ever served an extra term for escaping from prison, was released Thursday morning, having completed his second term.

Diamond Thief's Sentence.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 15.—A jury Thursday night gave Frank Montrose, the diamond thief, who robbed Strange's jewelry store, six years in the state prison. He offered to plead guilty before the court, but the judge would not give him less than seven years. Montrose was captured at St. Louis. He is one of the most noted diamond thieves in the country. Wm. Cody, Montrose's accomplice, pleaded guilty, and will be sentenced Friday.

The British Speakership.
LONDON, March 15.—The Globe asserts that intimation has been conveyed to certain members of the opposition that Sir William Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, will accept the speakership of the house of commons if his candidature is not opposed. A HURRICANE.

Terrible Devastation Wrought on the Fiji Islands.

Disease, Famine and Death Follow in the Wake of the Destroyer.

Several Large Vessels Wrecked With Loss of Life—Plantations Swept Away, Houses Destroyed, Millions Starved and Food Supply Cut Off.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 15.—Particulars have arrived by the Australian mail of a terrible hurricane which swept over the Fiji islands a few weeks ago, and the first effects of which were still a topic of interesting discussion when the Mirrows touched at Suva. It was in this storm that several large vessels came to grief with inevitable loss of life and buildings in Suva, the capital of Fiji, suffered very severely. The town is comparatively in debris, having been the center of the hurricane.

Most of the damage appears to have been done about 2 a. m. February 7, when the force of the wind was terrific. The hurricane was accompanied by a fearful driving rain, penetrating everything. The storm continued until 5 o'clock Monday afternoon and then gradually calmed down.

During the full sea the waters were so high that the damage done was terrible. The town was stripped of foliage and on every hand were houses with verandas blown down, roofs half off, bare walls standing or damaged of some other form apparent. The most serious reports of damage comes from plantations in the group which has suffered terribly. The coconut plantations will take fully five years to recover, and banana plantations have been totally destroyed. The past year has been such a thoroughly successful one that business people were looking forward to a few years of prosperity, coconut plantations having only recently recovered from past blows. This is reported to be the most serious hurricane the group has had for years.

The Island of Tauevu, on which most of the European planters are settled, has been swept from top to bottom. The Union Steamship Co.'s Osea had a miraculous escape.

She was shipping sugar at Vila point, where there is absolutely no shelter. When the hurricane had blown over she had drifted many miles and gotten among the most dangerous path of reefs of the group, known as the Ringgold reefs, where the smallest inter-insular steamer would not go in the broadest daylight.

The food supplies of the people are now almost entirely destroyed and the effects which must surely follow such a storm are then it does a great deal of death. The government of the Fiji is fully aware of this danger, has voted money to meet the more immediate necessities of the case, but this will certainly not prove sufficient. By far the largest number of natives belong to the Methodist church of this colony and missionary societies are taking steps to give relief.

A correspondent says: "The cyclone traveled from east to west developed around an axis against the sun. We had the last blast about 6 p. m. Sunday. Though then it blew a gale of almost hurricane force all night, it seemed to be calm compared to the fearful reality of the cyclone. On Monday morning what a sight the island presented! All houses in the native town were leveled. Nearly all the 700 cottages were down or lurched over or torn away. The whole place had just the appearance of having been bombarded for weeks past by all the fleets on earth or sea, the ground being strewn with iron looking like cannon balls, only no cannoning could have caused the devastation which was everywhere revealed."

Wreck on the Vandalia Road.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 15.—Word just reached this city that the west-bound Vandalia passenger train, due here at 2 o'clock Friday morning has been wrecked and is on fire near the fair grounds, three miles east of the city. The fire department has gone to the wreck. The place can be only reached by carriage, and it is impossible to ascertain further details. So far as can be learned no lives are lost in the wreck.

Two COUNCILMEN are to be elected in the Seventh ward.

ONLY one cent a day for the Times, the best daily in Portsmouth.

THE people this spring intend to vote as they work—for their own interests.

Do not fail to read the advertisements in the Times. They are always fresh and readable, and put in the most attractive form.

The indications are that one or more women will be elected to the school board at the coming election in Portsmouth.

The election of Mrs. Hadley to the school board from the Second, over Edgar F. Draper, is freely predicted.

The Vickers-Overturf-Guerrilla scheme which brought Draper out will not succeed in the Second.

THE Tribune says its candidate for marshal—Frank Watkins—has "always worked with his hands," but what is needed in that office is a man who works with his head, as well as his hands, and that's the kind of a man Fred Schmitt is.

EX-GOVERNOR CAMERON swallowed some spirits of ammonia for water at the dinner table the other day, and the mistake will not cost him his life.

But "Jimmie" will procure a new lining for his throat and be ready with his clarion voice to enter the next campaign with better spirits than ammonia.

The election of Marshal Schmitt is generally conceded. Our citizens who have something at stake besides politics and spoils feel that it would be unsafe and the height of folly to put his opponent at the head of the police force. A feeling of security for home and family is better than the partisan howls of a ward politician.

The election of Mrs. Myrtle Hull to the school board from the Sixth ward is predicted, and it is intimated that Arthur Bauman will eventually surrender at discretion. It is not stated whether Arthur does this because he recognizes defeat, or from that spirit of gallantry for which he is noted which will not permit him to contest with a lady for so small a prize. Mrs. Hull proposes to make an active canvass, believing that women should be represented on the school board, and an army of gentlemen, as well as the ladies, will help her to victory. Bauman might as well fold his tents and steal away.

The income tax law has been in progress in the supreme court during the past week. The contention of the opponents of the law is that it is a direct tax, and therefore should be apportioned equally among the states according to population. But the supreme court has heretofore held that an income tax is not a direct tax, and the court is not apt to reverse its former decision at the back of the money-bags of the country. Outside of the tax-dodgers the justice of a tax upon incomes will be recognized and approved.

The Delaware legislature is still battling for senator in place of Higgins whose term expires on the 4th of March. But money and scandal are playing their part in the fight. The new governor, Marvill, is ill, and he cannot read or write even when he is well, and so our Republican friends are having a great deal of anxiety over the fruits of their late victory in little Delaware.

If the taxpayers of Portsmouth re-elect Richter as street commissioner for another term they can only blame themselves if $8,800 is expended upon the streets during the next year, as during the past, with nothing to show for the expenditure. Joe Hinkle served one term in the office and proved his efficiency and he can save the city several thousand dollars by good management in that office.

A SPANISH gunboat fired upon an American mail steamer in Cuban waters the other day. The Spanish minister assumes that the vessel was not upon the high seas, but within the jurisdiction of Cuba; but that if any offense or indiscretion was committed by the warship, Spain will speedily make every apology the circumstances require. If these Spaniards go to shooting around too promiscuously where the American flag is flying, they may find that the roar of the guns of Uncle Sam will awake Cuba to her freedom.

The Republican committee is having a rough and jagged time getting a candidate for council for the Fourth ward properly tuned up. William J. Gims was first nominated but either declined to serve or was switched off. Then George Lowery was selected but had barely got his fighting clothes on when he was unceremoniously bounced but his lacerated feelings were very cheaply soothed by making him ward committeeman. And now we see by the Tribune that William Grimes is the nominee. This is the third candidate and it seems that it has been reported that he will not make the race; but the organ assures its readers that he will stick and that there is no better material in the ward than "Billy" Grimes. If Mr. Grimes should let go they might get Lowery to once more uplift the banner.

MISSING.

The Spanish Steamer Reina Regente Overdue.

It is Believed in Madrid That She Has Foundered.

The Regente's Compass Box Came Ashore at Tarifa on Thursday—A Vessel Sent in Search of Her Returns With No Tidings.

MADRID, March 15.—The ministers were questioned in congress Thursday afternoon regarding the Reina Regente. Premier Sagasta replied that the government had been unable to get definite news of the cruiser, and feared that she had been wrecked.

The general opinion in Madrid and the large seaports is that the cruiser has foundered with all on board. The majority of the crew belonged in Cadiz and Cartagena, where the excitement is intense.

The Moorish steamer Hassini left Tangiers early Thursday morning to search for the cruiser. She returned Thursday afternoon with eleven castaways from the bark Luz, which was wrecked in Sunday's gale. She will go out again Friday to ascertain whether the Reina Regente did not seek refuge in some Moorish port without a telegraph line by which her arrival could be announced.

A dispatch from Tarifa, on the south coast, says that the Reina Regente's compass box came ashore there Thursday afternoon.

GOLD IN GEORGIA.

Examination of the Geological Survey Reveals Valuable Mineral Lands.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Director Walcott, of the geological survey, has made his annual report to the secretary of the interior. Tracings have been made, showing that coal areas extend from far up in Pennsylvania through the mountainous region of the entire Appalachian basin.

An examination of supposed phosphate lands in southeastern Tennessee and northern Georgia and Alabama definitely proves the absence of phosphate. An examination shows that deposits of gold in the south are divided into three groups, one in Georgia, trending in a northerly direction through Dalton; important expansions in Alabama and North Carolina. A third belt trends in the same direction through Charlotte, N. C., reaching into South Carolina, and nearly to the Virginia line. Surveys show that the iron fields of the Michigan district cover about 1,300 square miles. The soils of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin have been examined, also the water supply and natural gas possibilities ascertained.

Amusements—"On the Go."

"On the Go" is the title of Charles A. Loder's new comedy, which will be presented for the first time in our city next Wednesday night, March 20th, at the Grand. All the theater-goers have seen Mr. Loder in "Hilarity" and "Oh, What a Night," and as a German comedian he has won the admiration of all.

In the new comedy he will be seen at his best, as it gives him an opportunity which has always been missing in all his other productions. He assumes the character of a German detective, and, as to the complications arising from this character, is a proof of the many funny situations that must take place. The author, Frank Dumont, has, in "On the Go," written his masterpiece, and well he can be delighted by the success it has attained at the hands of Mr. Loder and his company of farcical favorites. The songs, dances, music and specialties of the new comedy are all new and catchy, and well merit the success they have attained.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Syrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life."

The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 50 cent bottles for sale by Fisher & Streich, Druggists.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller leads all other preparations in this market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs, colds and croup.—A. W. BALDRIDGE, Millersville, Ill. For sale by Fisher & Streich, Druggists.

CHAPTER III.

When Comfort came downstairs the next morning there was a bright red spot on each cheek, and she was trembling as if she had a chill.

Her mother noticed it and asked her if she was cold, and Comfort said: "Yes, ma'am."

"Well, draw your stool up close to the fire and get warm," said her mother. "Breakfast is most ready. You can have some of these pancakes to carry to school for your dinner."

Comfort sat soberly in the chimney corner until breakfast was ready, as her mother bade her. She was very silent and did not say anything during breakfast, unless some one asked her a question.

When she started for school, her mother and grandmother, stood in the window and watched her. It was a very cold morning, and Mrs. Pease had put her green shawl on

She was dreadfully afraid of this big girl, who was as much as sixteen years old and studied algebra and was also said to have a beau.

"Got that gold ring?" inquired the big girl, with a giggle, as she held out her hand to the stove.

Comfort looked at her as if she were going to cry.

"You're real mean to tease her, so there!" said Matilda Stebbins, bravely, in the face of the big girl, who persisted, nevertheless. "Got that gold ring?" she asked again, with her teasing giggle, which the others echoed.

Comfort slowly raised her left arm. She unfolded her little blue fist, and there on the third and fourth fingers of her hand shone the gold ring.

Then there was such an outcry that Miss Tabitha Hanks looked up from her copy, and kept her wary eyes fixed on the group at the stove.

"My sakes alive! Look at Comfort Pease with a gold ring on two fingers!" screamed the big girl, and all the rest joined in.

The other scholars in the room came crowding up to the stove. "Let's see it!" they demanded of Comfort. They teased her to let them take it. "Lend me take it for just a minute? I'll give it right back, honest," they begged, but Comfort was firm about that; she would other scholars lived near enough the schoolhouse to go home every day unless it was very stormy weather.

After everybody was gone, Miss Tabitha and all the first thing Comfort did was to slide her hand down over the bottom of her pocket, and carefully feel of it under her dress skirt.

Her heart gave a great leap and seemed to stand still—she could not feel any ring there.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

South Webster.

A furious snow storm swept over this section of the country last Friday evening. It was something uncommon to see flashes of lightning flash through the snow clouds.

Mrs. Henry Proch who has been confined to her bed for a few weeks by erysipelas we are glad to mention is some better at the present writing.

The Misses Lyda McNaughton and Kate Prior, of this place, who were at Jackson attending the county teachers examination last week, succeeded in securing one year certificates.

James Shope, of Bloom Switch, will take charge of the Central hotel next week.

They do say that James McBride looks too cute in that little brown cap.

Henry H. Marsh left for your city this week, to attend the River City Business college, where he will take up business forms, shorthand, bookkeeping, etc. We will miss our friend Mr. Marsh very much, especially the City Music band which was just recently organized and of which he was a prominent member.

Rev. Joe Tracy of Pioneer was in our village on business Tuesday.

John Bauer the hustling drummer for M. B. Gilbert & Co., of your city, was in the village on business Wednesday.

We are informed that G. C. and Ed Kuhner, two of our very influential citizens, are soon to receive a handsome little fortune from a late deceased aunt in Germany. The deceased bequeathed her entire fortune of $15,000 to the above named relatives as sole heirs.

Messrs. Wm. Marsh and Henry Heller, of this place, attended the funeral of the late Adam Duveneck, at Scioto.

We do not aspire to pose as a weather cock, and to proclaim the interesting(?) facts and fancies relating to the "wind and weather at present" into the world (and this is possibly attributable to lack of ambition in us) so if our dear readers desire some ardent information on that profound subject we would advise them to consult the Blade and Press and their correspondents, and the Tribune, if it can be "discovered," it having been an unknown quantity here lately—we believe, dating from the recent cold snap.

Mrs. Wm. Marsh, who has been ailing with the rheumatism, is recovering. Mrs. Fred Leppin, landlady of the Portsmouth Junction Hotel, was visiting at this place last week.

Henry Prosch, of Cincinnati, who was called here by the late serious illness of his mother, returned home Monday, his mother being convalescent.

We learn that our genial old friend, Hon. Fred Mittendorf, is a prospective candidate for county treasurer. Mr. Mittendorf will no doubt receive the popular support which he richly deserves.

The B. & O. S. W. pay car passed through the village Wednesday morning, which made the boys all wear a broad smile on their face.

Mr. Wm. F. Gist and son Thomas were in Sciotoville looking for property to rent, last Tuesday. Mr. Gist thinks he will move to that village next week.

Rev. Walter Hanning made a flying trip to your city Wednesday.

Mr. Ernest Veneer is thinking some of running for assessor on the Republican ticket this spring.

Mr. Fred Kuhner, our local merchant, was in your city on business Wednesday.

McGaw.

The Times will please excuse us, but we must call your attention to the spelling of our address McG-a-w instead of McG-r-a-w. We are not all McGraws down here, although we must admit the McGraws have the bulk of notoriety for this section of country.

La Grippe seems to be on his annual round in our neighborhood.

Mr. A. G. McCall was in Ironton, Saturday and Sunday. It seems curious that we can't raise "flowers" here at home that will satisfy Art's desire for the beautiful.

Riley Gilpin has moved on the upper McCormick farm. Mr. Gilpin lost a note book containing some valuable papers along the pike Saturday. Finder will please return to him and be rewarded.

A. A. Herdman let his horse run away Sunday, damaging the buggy considerable.

We are looking for more arrests on Twin Creek as the result of a hair pulling some women indulged in last week.

Henry Morrison, late of our neighborhood, but now of Portsmouth, is visiting here.

Senator James Hodge moved to Portsmouth, Monday. We are sorry to see the senator go. He says he is sorry he didn't get moved in time to run for marshal, but thinks he can wait.

The Democrats of Nile township held their primaries Monday, and placed the following persons in nomination: Treasurer, J. T. Sullivan; assessor, Wm. Easter; trustee, Wm. Moore; constable, Horatio Smith. In all a very strong ticket.

IGNORANCE.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Fisher & Streich, Druggists.

A lodge of the new Dramatic Order, Knights of Khorassan will be organized in this city within the next two weeks. A petition was circulated by Deputy Gus Barlow, and enough signatures secured to make it a go. It is open only to Past Chancellors of the Knights of Pythias, but is in no way connected with that order, occupying about the same relation to it that the Shrine does to the Masonic order. A single black ball is death to any applicant. Portsmouth will be the headquarters for five plains, Scioto, Jackson, Pike, Adams and Lawrence, and all applicants from any of these counties must apply for membership here.

This is "Desert No. 4" of Ohio, the oasis being in this city, beneath the dome of Temple No. 28, the temple being named Alcazar, a Moorish palace. The officers elected are as follows:

The votaries elected to membership are: Deputy, Gus B. Barlow, previously commissioned by the author and supreme prince; Wm. Waller, Felix Haas, W. F. Cook, W. H. W. Jenkins, J. J. Brushart, V. R. Row, A. R. Williams, C. C. Seeborn, J. G. Vandervoort, Louis Kelley, Carre Johnston, Ralph Johnston, A. Zoellner, J. M. Williams and A. Reinhard.

The meetings will be held once a month.

A PAIR OF RECEPTIONS.

A BOX SOCIAL.

The box social at the Findlay Street M. P. church last evening was a gratifying success in every particular. There were probably 100 people present. The ladies brought lunches done up in boxes with the name of the lady in the box prepared by her. These were all put together and sold to the gentlemen for twenty-five cents each, the purchaser enjoying the lunch with the lady whose name he found inside. The proceeds of the affair go toward repairing the church.

A CONUNDRUM SOCIAL.

The Y. P. S. O. E., of the Christian church, gave a conundrum social last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Weber, 211 East Third street. There were about 175 present which at fifteen cents admission netted a neat sum for the church fund. The hunt for the answers to the conundrums afforded considerable amusement. Refreshments were served and the guests enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

A SKEWING SOCIETY.

Mrs. Wm. F. Whitney entertained the ladies of the Carpet society of the First Baptist church at her home yesterday afternoon. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing and at 6 o'clock supper was served the gentlemen joining in this feature and all spending the evening very pleasantly.

Miss Newman, who has many friends in this city, is quite an accomplished elocutionist, and is rapidly making a reputation for herself in this line. She will return to this city tomorrow to again be the guest of Miss Mills—Chillicothe Gazette.

An Oway Marriage.

The Republican city central committee has been organized by the election of James C. Adams as chairman, and Samuel Harper secretary.

"On The Go," is a new farce comedy by Frank Dumont, author of "The Rainmakers," "McFadden's Elongment," etc.

A PAIR OF 'EM.

The City Council Holds a Special Meeting to Accept Two Resignations.

The members of the city council were so surprised and charmed at the idea of one of their number resigning that they turned out in force last evening to wave adieu to Mr. Adams, of the Seventh ward. Adams himself, of course, was there, as was Bannan, Connelley, Doty, Wall, Neill, Turley, Rider and Kricker. The resignation of Volney R. Row as justice of the peace, which has to be submitted to council and the county clerk, was read and accepted, greatly to the satisfaction of Attorney Will Waller, who was on hands to see that things were done up in proper shape. Willie, it should be said, expects to make the race for Volney's place on the Republican ticket.

After considerable discussion in which Mr. Connelley took the stand that the solicitor was elected and paid to attend to such matters it was agreed upon to hire Judge A. C. Thompson to act as counsel for the corporation in the Portsmouth and Columbus turnpike case. An early investigation and report was requested.

The resignation of James Adams as member of council from the Seventh ward was read and accepted. Mr. Kricker's motion that a vote of thanks be tendered the retiring gentleman was carried. In making the motion Mr. Kricker remarked that as councilman received no thanks from the public they should appreciate each other any way.

April 1st was fixed as day for special election to fill vacancies and after receiving thanks of Union Iron company creditors for use of chamber, council adjourned.

THEY ARE CORKERS.

A Group of Young Colored Gentlemen Organize a Minstrel Company and Will Play at Oway.

A number of young colored gentlemen, belonging to the Manhattan Social club, which meets in the Gay street engine house, have been getting things in shape the past few weeks to give a minstrel performance at Oway. The company is as follows: Frank Schumake, manager; Alonzo Baley, John Georgia and Henry Justice, quartet; Joe Dill, John Woods, Clifford Stratton and James Melvin, of the Mandolin club; Ben Bell, of Zulu fame, and John Pearsall, end men. Robert Hunter will have charge of a select orchestra.

The boys expect to play in Oway the first week in April and anticipate a great time. The audience can be assured that they will have something to laugh at, as the antics of some of the minstrels would make a money laugh. The Mandolin club will furnish some of its excellent music, while the program will wind up with a grand burlesque on Frank White's cake walk.

A $15 COW

The Bone of Contention in a Law Suit in "Squire Shakespear's Court."

Jonathan S. Dodge, Esq., has brought suit in "Squire Shakespear's court" to replevin a cow from George Rider. The animal is the property of James Polly who is temporarily sojourning at the Columbus O. P. Dodge defended him last term of court, and took a mortgage on the cow to secure his fee. After James had departed Mrs. Polly turned the cow over to George Rider, instructing him to care for it. George didn't want to give it up until he had received pay for his care, but the constable took it anyhow, and the "squire" will hear the case on its merits tomorrow.

DOING NICELY

Albert Bader, formerly of This City, But Now in Philadelphia.

Albert Bader, a young man formerly employed in Zoellner's jewelry store, but who has recently been attending a school of engraving in Philadelphia, writes that he is getting along nicely. He enclosed "Billy" Maier a handsome souvenir in the shape of a lion's head engraved on a piece of metal by himself, while on the opposite side is the inscription, "Lion Brewery, William Maier, Agent." The work is very neatly executed and a credit to the young man.

Got Four Judgments.

The Jung Brewing company of Cincinnati brought suit against A. W. Aelkerman in "Squire Shakespear's court" to recover on four promissory notes. The cases were heard by a jury yesterday afternoon, and the plaintiff awarded verdicts of $301, $205.50, $304.50 and $205.50 respectively.

AS THE CORRESPONDENT SEES IT.

It is in Mighty Poor Taste for the Blade to Pose as the Champion of Germans.

The "Correspondent" more nearly represents the intelligent Germans of our city and vicinity than any other newspaper, and for this reason its opinions on matters relating to Germans is of value. In view of the howls made at the Times by the Blade and Tribune on account of a little pleasantries in the report of the Republican city convention the following from today's Correspondent is of some moment.

The ludicrousness of the position of the Blade in posing as the champion of the Germans is here exposed. No attention is paid the Tribune. The Correspondent evidently considering that sheet beneath notice.

It is very nice and commendable that the Republican papers of the city have taken the Times to account during the past week for that paper had violated decency in making fun of the manner of speech of our esteemed friend, Louis Bloomeyer. After Mr. Bloomeyer was nominated in the city convention as water works trustee, he was, like the other lucky candidates, called upon for a speech, and thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him.

That you could recognize from his pronunciation that he was of German origin, we do not dispute. The office for which he was nominated does not require a good speaker, but practical experience and some sense, and also an honorable character, and these qualities and gifts our friend Bloomeyer has. It is really not worth while to notice such an effusion, for we are convinced that the reporter did not have any bad intention when he made fun of exposition and pronunciation. He only wanted to excite the risibilities of his readers. The American in general finds nothing objectionable in this. He is in that respect a queer animal, the strangest part in this matter is the great sympathy shown by other papers; the crocodile tears. How often for instance, has the Blade made fun of the pronunciation and dialect of Germans. Now it condemns what it has been guilty of so often itself. We do not excuse the Times; on the contrary the Times has not treated Mr. Bloomeyer with the respect due him. However the Blade has been guilty of the same thing a hundred times. Its sympathetic howl is therefore of no value.

Drake Opera House.

The Central New Jersey Daily Herald, Elizabeth, N. J., Oct. 30, 1894, says: "A large and appreciative audience at the Drake's opera house greeted Gorton's minstrels last night. A rather lengthy program was presented so acceptably that it is difficult to single out any particular artist for special mention. The sweet songs of Charles H. Larkin and H. J. Yorker charmed by their pathos, while the inimitable Fred Alberts convulsed the entire audience. The quartet composed of Byrne, Armstrong, Curtis and Keating excelled in song and dance. Maricham and Alberts presided their rarest of treats, a musical sketch that was new, novel and enjoyable. The mere announcement of a return of Gorton's minstrels will be all that is necessary in the future to pack the house." Tuesday, March 19th.
